JAMES P. ROMEO . . . APPRECIATION NIGHT

On January 11, 1975 friends from all walks of life gathered at The Ridder Country Club to say "Goodby" and "Thanks" to Jim Romeo on the occasion of his retirement as Principal of Marshfield High School.

The evening was a gala affair and yet a feeling of nostalgia and sadness permeated the hearts of all. We knew this evening would mark the end of a long and dedicated career by a man who has made each of our lives a little richer by knowing him and a little empty by his retirement.

We wish Jim and Barbara the best that life can offer. They have always given their best!

"Smile, Barbara, here comes the photographer."

"And furthermore, I'm a little sick of scheduling!"

"Silence is golden; speech is silver."

"I'm proud to announce a world record — the Romeo's have never lost in 32 years of competition."

"I want to make this perfectly clear."

"My hearing aid is all right; it must be my glasses."

"Remember to take your medicine."

"Lord, give him strength to replace me."

Dedication

If there was ever a guy who can both psyche out the football team before a game, and fix your schedule
so you can leave after Sixth Period, it has to be Mr. Roper. A long time member of the M.H.S. staff, a guidance counselor, a football coach and head of the student advisory committee, Mr. Roper is an asset to the school on or off the field. We thank him for all that he has done.

If there was ever a gal who can both psyche out the crafts class before a project and let you pursue your own artistic direction without influencing you, it has to be Mrs. Greenmeyer. A short time member of the M.H.S. staff, a crafts instructor, and a unique individual whose informal approach encourages the fulfillment of the students' creative potential, Mrs. Greenmeyer is an asset to the school, but especially to the students. We thank her for all that she has done.

Project Enterprise

During its first year of operation, Project Enterprise had an enrollment of 38 juniors. These students, all with different and varied backgrounds, participated in the renovation of the Old Second Parish Church in North Marshfield as well as taking the traditional junior subjects; English, U. S. History and math. In the beginning stages of reconstruction, students replaced rotten sills, built new walls, insulated and drywalled the interior and did the electrical wiring of the building. Later they shingled the exterior, painted the interior and leveled the sagging floor. The objectives of these activities were to give students vocational training and experience in carpentry, masonry, electricity, landscaping, furniture and antique restoration, and public relations. Often- times tradesmen from the community assisted and taught students.

The Project Enterprise teachers are Mr. Parker (English), Mr. Fleming (U.S. History), Mr. Schwartz (math) and Mr. Kilroy (Industrial Arts).

Junior-Senior Prom

The 1974 junior-senior prom was held on May 11th at the Sheraton Tara in Braintree. The Techniques of the Surf-Nantasket filled the room with a fine performance of lively music. It was always a nice change to see classmates and close friends dancing beautifully in long gowns and tuxedos. The excitement was highlighted with the crowning of the 1974 Prom Queen, Laura Fait. Last year's Queen, Michele Bohin, presented Laura with flowers and her crown. The girls in the Queen's court were: June Durgin, Lolita Sabine, Regina Kilfoyle, and Kerri Fullam. These girls were presented with colorful nosegays. The prom turned out to be a great success.

1975 Winter Prom

The 1975 Senior Class held their winter Prom on December 22 at Dreamwald in Scituate. The band engaged for the occasion was the Second Society. The King and Queen were chosen by applause from classmates from five finalist couples. The King and Queen were Roberta Himmel and Rick Margeson. The court members were Judy Barry, Lynn Frasca, Gail Powers, and Downy McKrae.

The Marshfield Rams, after a dismal start, came on strong at the end of the season winning the last three games. The record of 3-5-1 does not really do justice to this year's team, which was composed mostly of underclassmen. The opening contest saw the Rams fumble the ball and the game away to Hingham. In the second game, Marshfield was edged 13-7 by Plymouth, a team that was to end the season with a 10-0 record. A scoreless tie with Silver Lake followed and the next week the Rams were belted by Randolph 35-12. A 19-0 loss to Rockland followed, with the Rams gaining momentum in the next game, barely losing to Whitman 14-13. Marshfield came alive, beating Bridgewater, Dennis Yarmouth, and Scituate to end the season. The Rams were captained by Gary Malone, Jim Griffiths, and Brian Gavagahn. Top senior performers were Ray Berberick, Paul Unangst, Bob Norris, Henry Tweedy, Doug Rader, Henry Johnson, Mark Sullivan, Ralph Nicotra, Lou O'Rourke, Don Topham, Dennis Hayes, and Student Trainer John Smith. Coaches DiGravio, Roper, Silva, and McMahon are looking to next year's campaign with guarded optimism. Finishing the season with 3 straight wins, including a 27-6 Turkey Day victory over Scituate, was a great way to end off the year.
